

Important Information for Future Ancilla LPN to RN Bridge Program Applicants

- Plan of action
 - As soon as possible, begin to review from an NCLEX-PN review guide. We strongly recommend that you begin the review process early to be certain you have reviewed the material thoroughly in order to pass the test on the first attempt. A passing score on this test is required for acceptance to the LPN to RN Bridge program. It is better to be fully prepared and pass the test the first time rather than having to retake it.
 - Guidelines for Testing
 - Students may elect to re-test if they did not get the desired score; however, only the most recent score will count towards the admission process, not the highest score. If you are unsuccessful in reaching an acceptable score on the second attempt, you will be unable to apply to the LPN to RN Bridge program until the following year with all rules in place for admission at that time.
 - Required LPN to RN Bridge Exam Information
 - Ancilla College LPN to RN Bridge Program Placement Exam recommended minimum score is 850.
 - A bridge placement score between 700 and 849 will require students to take NR010 Nursing Concepts. This course must be completed with a "pass" or the student will be administratively withdrawn from the LPN to RN bridge program and will be ineligible for re-admission.
 - Cost of the LPN to RN Bridge Program Placement Exam is $45 each time the exam is attempted.
 - NOTE: The student is responsible for taking the printed score results from the Center for Student Achievement to the Nursing Division Administrative Assistant (Office C-136).
